

Welsh House Farm Community School's Parental Code of Conduct

Welsh House Farm Community School believes in respecting, valuing and caring for each member of the school community. Therefore, we believe Welsh House Farm Community School should be a safe and protective environment for all children, staff and parents. Consequently, the aim of the Parental Code of Conduct is to ensure that all members of the school community treat each other with respect in order to support the positive ethos of the school.

School Ethos: "Inspired to grow and flourish."

School Aims

- We work together to make a difference.
- We respect, care and value each other.
- We celebrate our successes and achievements.
- We strive for good attendance and punctuality.
- We always have a 'can do' attitude and have high expectations.
- We ensure the safety and well-being of ALL.
- We embrace challenge and change.
- We contribute to a positive day in any way you can.

At Welsh House Farm Community School we value our strong relationship with parents and carers. Together, this will help us achieve the best outcomes for the children in a mutually supportive partnership between parents, class teachers and the school community.

Expectations

At Welsh House Farm Community School we adhere to the following principles to ensure the children can grow and flourish in a respectful, caring environment. Therefore, the school's expectations are as follows:

- To respect the caring ethos and values of the school.
- That both teachers and parents need to work together for the benefit of the children.
- All members of the school community are treated with equal respect.
- That all members of the school community take responsibility for their own actions.
- Physical attacks, threatening or abusive behaviour will not be tolerated and result in the school taking action.

Parental Guidelines

In order to support a peaceful and safe school environment the school will not tolerate parents, carers or visitors exhibiting the following:

- Any inappropriate behaviour on the school premises.
- Using loud or offensive language or displaying temper.
- Threatening, in any way, a member of school staff, visitor, fellow parent/ carer or pupil.
- Damaging or destroying school property.
- The use of physical or verbal aggression towards another adult or child.
- Approaching someone else's child in order to discuss or chastise them because of the actions of this child towards their own child.
- Dogs being brought on to the school premises (other than guide dogs).
- Smoking, taking illegal drugs or the consumption of alcohol on school premises.
- Defamatory, offensive or derogatory comments regarding the school or any of the pupils/parents/staff, at the school on Facebook or other sites.

How the school will respond to unacceptable behaviour and conduct

Welsh House Community School reserves the right to take any necessary actions to ensure all members of the school community are not subject to abuse. Therefore the school will take the following actions if we feel any behaviour is deemed abusive:

- Should anyone exhibit any of the behaviours mentioned in parental guidelines; then the school will contact the appropriate authorities.
- The school also reserves the right to ban the offending adult from the school premises.
- The school reserves the right to remove any derogatory comments from the school social network sites.
- The school will report any inappropriate or libellous comments posted online to the appropriate 'report abuse' section of the network site.
- The school will also consider legal options to deal with any such misuse on social networking and other sites.
